Videography Internship

Kayam Farm at Pearlstone is seeking an ENTHUSIASTIC FILM MAKER with good follow through, initiative, and an interest in ORGANIC FARMING!

Videographer will be asked to:

- Film, produce, edit, and upload short experiential videos about Kayam Farm.
- Coordinate filming with other farm interns and summer staff.
- Create a YouTube presence for Kayam Farm at Pearlstone.
- Capture the diversity and range of Kayam Farm's educational programming.

Intern must provide own recording and editing equipment. Film students welcome!

Kayam Farm grows healthy organic food for the Pearlstone Center and greater Baltimore community, while offering both Jewish and secular hands-on agricultural and environmental education. We reconnect people with their food and with the earth, inspiring social and ecological responsibility in the Jewish community, greater Baltimore, and beyond.

If you are an interested videographer, film maker, or YouTube enthusiast, CONTACT US!
