Dear Friends,

It gives us great pleasure and pride to join you in celebrating the Beth El Synagogue community and to pay tribute to our very special friend, Donald Fleishaker, and the other honorees. The combination of experience, expertise, and energy that they bring to their efforts demonstrates what it means to be true leaders in our community.

We recognize Donald as a special friend of UJA-Federation of New York, and we're grateful for all that he has done for the Jewish community as well as his tireless leadership. His support helps our network of nonprofits provide struggling families with food, the elderly with medicine, the homeless with shelter, and teenagers with inspiring new connections to their Jewish heritage.

We extend our deepest thanks to the honorees for embracing the Jewish tradition of tikkun olam, repairing or mending the world, and for inspiring so many others to do the same.

On behalf of UJA-Federation, please accept our deepest congratulations. Mazel tov to the honorees and to the entire Beth El kehilla on your commitment to community and wonderful accomplishments.

Yasher koach!

With warmth and appreciation,

Cindy Golub
