Dear Friends,

It is my pleasure to welcome you to the Brooklyn Queens Long Island (BQLI) Region Women's League for Conservative Judaism's Woman of Achievement Gala of 2023!

The BQLI Region's Woman of Achievement Gala showcases the accomplishments and success of women leaders in our community. The Women's League for Conservative Judaism has continuously committed themselves to promoting and celebrating the values and traditions of the American Jewish community. Through these efforts, Jewish women in Suffolk County have great support and assistance in their own professional and personal development.

On behalf of the 1.5 million residents of Suffolk County, we are proud to have such an incredible partner in the BQLI Region Women's League for Conservative Judaism. Congratulations to tonight's honorees from Suffolk County, including Shari Feibel, Sheryl Aileen Roberts, and Michelle Statfeld who are each receiving a Woman of Achievement Award, as well as Emerging Leader Gabriella Messing who is receiving the L'Dor V'Dor Award. Your achievements are recognized as a glowing example of leadership and diligence to those in our community.

Enjoy the festivities!

Sincerely,

STEVEN BELLONE
