My Dear Friends,

It is an honor and pleasure for me to be able to say a few words of blessing to my colleague and good friend, Rabbi Yitzchak Hirshfeld and to the great institution of Shapell's/Darche Noam, which has done so much on behalf the Jewish people. There are hundreds and hundreds of Jewish families in the world today that are observant and loyal Jews because of Rabbi Hirshfeld, and because of Darche Noam. We can expect from these hundreds, thousands will emerge and eventually tens of thousands. This is, therefore, the eternity of the Jewish people that we commemorate by honoring Rabbi Hirshfeld. May the Lord grant him and his family many more good years of health and of accomplishment, and may Shapell's/Darche Noam continue to be a beacon of Torah in a world that otherwise is pretty dark.

With all blessings and good wishes, I remain sincerely yours,

Rabbi Berel Wein
