Welcome to “A Magical Evening”! We have come together to honor Sherry and to support Greenburgh Hebrew Center. Together we have made a magical community where we pray together, learn together, and care for one another. For the past few years Sherry has asked to move the Journal Event to April. Sherry, we hope that tonight we have met and surpassed your expectations!

On behalf of the Fundraising committee, I congratulate Sherry on being honored tonight. Sherry loves and believes in GHC. Therefore, her success does come naturally. She has dedicated her time, ideas and creativity to GHC. Sherry has touched almost every arm of the synagogue and has helped us to turn a congregation into a community. She starts her day at morning minyan and often ends it at a GHC meeting. Sherry has been both the Congregation's President and the Sisterhood President. She has helped to bring new members into GHC as well as making long-time members feel special. Presently as the chair of the publicity committee, Sherry has enjoyed bragging about our synagogue to all of the newspapers! All who come to Shabbat services have enjoyed the delicious Shabbat Kiddush luncheon that Sherry and Lori Sloane prepare. Whether it is bagels accompanied by sesame noodles or their famous baked French toast, it is always a lovely way to conclude the morning.

Sherry, we thank you for helping GHC to become stronger each day. Ira, thank you for all that you do to support Sherry's endeavors as well as donating your time and efforts, too.

I am a Vice President who is lucky to have a hard working, creative and supportive committee. GHC owes them a great big thank you for not only planning a terrific journal and this evening's event, but also for their dedication to raising funds throughout the year. My thanks go to our amazing journal creators: Alan Kravitz, Michael Feinkind, Naomi Feinkind, Caryn Kravitz, Nora Contract, and Jacqui Whitney; to Sheila Greenwald and Madaline Bruno for organizing our guest list; and to Robbie Goldberg, Rhonda Baskin, Mary Ramos Brauner, Jay Lutzky and Jo-Ann Lutzky for taking care of the many details that are necessary in planning this evening. As always, we thank Pat Conlin for her constant support and expertise.
