Dear Friends of GHC,

I have known Sherry for only a fraction of her time at GHC. However, in that time she has impressed me with her energy and drive, her guidance and advice, and being a good friend to me and my family. During her over 30 years at GHC, Sherry has held many leadership roles, both being in the spotlight and leading from behind the scenes. We can always count on Sherry to get the job done.

Sherry has served as GHC President, Sisterhood President, and continues to serve as a Sisterhood Board member. Sherry is also in charge of running the gift shop, serving all of our Judaica needs.

Behind the scenes, Sherry has often sacrificed her family's Shabbat meals in order to insure that we have our community Kiddush prepared. You will find her often running around, checking the details, and putting everything together in a seamless way.

Sherry has been a friend to many and I am honored that I can call her my friend.

Todah Rabah,

Yanira Quinones
