Dear Friends of GHC;

We are writing this letter as members of the GHC Sisterhood Board to honor our outgoing president Phil Karmel. We are incredibly grateful to him for his support, his dedication and his many contributions to GHC. Phil and Barbara have always been active supporters and participants in Sisterhood events and activities. And now that Phil will have more free time, we hope that this participation will continue and both of them will be able to be even more active!

Phil has always encouraged Sisterhood to bring back the synagogue Progressive Dinner that we had held for many years prior to his presidency. We will absolutely consider adding it to next year's calendar. So Phil, we will make you a deal. If you volunteer to be a host for appetizers/cocktails or dinner for the Progressive Dinner, we will try our absolute best to include in the 2017/2018 calendar. Think about it!

While we really appreciate Phil's leadership and decision-making skills, we truly respect his many talents in the GHC kitchen. Phil's holiday Kiddushim are bountiful, nutritious and satisfying, considering the limited time he has to prepare these lunches. Phil - maybe you want to consider totally switching roles with Lori Sloane??

Phil thank you for a spectacular 2 years. Enjoy your well-deserved honor!
