Dear Friends of GHC;

We are delighted to participate in the annual Journal, this year honoring Dr. Lori Sloane. Lori has been an outstanding President and leader in our community. We are thrilled to honor one of our “own” as Lori is a long-time member of Sisterhood, a Torah Fund benefactor, and a past board member.

Lori, you have achieved much during your presidency and have certainly encountered many challenges. You have maintained your composure and patience throughout these 2 years and are always thinking ahead for what is best for the future of GHC. One of your many legacies will be your hard work and thoughtful planning for security for GHC. Thank you also for your time and dedication to the GHC weekly Kiddush! We are so impressed that with all you have going on, you are available to help create a beautiful, delicious Kiddush on a weekly basis.

Lori, thank you for a spectacular 2 years and thank you for your leadership and your support! Enjoy your well-deserved honor and ‘rest’. We look forward to your continued involvement in Sisterhood and now that you’ll have more time on your hands, perhaps you’ll consider joining us once again at Board meetings and using your creative skills to run an event! Just let us know when you are ready!

With gratitude, on behalf of the many members of GHC Sisterhood and the Sisterhood Board –

Robin Rosenberg-President, Nettie Goldstein, Arlene Krawitz, Enid Lotstein, Vivian Milefsky, Sherry Padva, Allyn Salpeter, Pam Stoller, Bernice Strauss, & Sharon Weiss
