

Anne Carol Batsford, Lewis V. Hohl Wed In First Reformed Church

Miss Ann Carol Batsford, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Batsford of Hastings-on-Hudson, was married last Saturday in the First Reformed Church to Mr. Roderick Lewis Hohl, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis V. Hohl of Scarsdale.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. A. G. Bossenbrook. A reception was held in the parish house.

Mr. Batsford gave his daughter in marriage. The groom's sister, Mrs. F. Blakesless Wallace, Jr., of Phoenix, Arizona, was matron of honor. The attendants were Mrs. Yukio Kachi of Princeton, New Jersey, and Mrs. John S. Mahoney of Bethlehem, Pennsylvania.

Mr. William E. Reid, Jr., of Spartanburg, South Carolina, was best man. Ushers were Messrs. Howard and William Batsford, brothers of the bride, F. Blakesless Wallace, Jr., the groom's brother-in-law, and Alan H. Temple.

The bride wore a full-length white taffeta gown appliqued with Alencon lace. She wore a waist-length veil and carried white roses and chrysanthemums. Her attendants wore peacock blue taffeta and carried yellow and bronze chrysanthemums.

Mrs. Hohl is a graduate of Hastings High School and attended Wellesley College and the Katharine Gibbs School. Mr. Kohl is a graduate of Scarsdale High School and the Johns Hopkins University and received his masters of science degree in journalism from Columbia University. He is the meetings and public relations manager of the American Rocket Society in New York.

Grace Church School To Present Tableau

"The Christian Seasons in Hymn and Tableau" is the title of the presentation to be given on Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock in Grace Church.

The ten major Seasons of the Christian Year beginning with Advent and ending with Trinity will be depicted by various classes and individuals of the Church School from Nursery through 8th grade. Members of the Junior Altar Guild and the Intermediate choirs and acolytes will be in the cast.

The pageant is designed as a service of worship and recall of the church year which ends on November 30th, St. Andrew's Day, and looks toward the new sequence which begins Dec. 3rd, the 1st Sunday of Advent. The church school staff cordially invites all interested persons.

Hudson Heights Group To Hear Talk On Fallout

The effects of thermonuclear explosions will be discussed at a meeting of the Hastings Hudson Heights Association in the Municipal Building next Tuesday, December 5 at 8:15 p.m. The public is invited.

The speaker will be Dr. Richard S. Benua, of Pelham, a member of the Scientists' Committee for Radiation Information. Dr. Benua is a staff member of the Sloan Kettering Memorial Institute.

Association members will also hear a presentation on Westchester County's offer to the village of Hastings-on-Hudson, for $1, of approximately 30 acres of park land between the Saw Mill River Parkway and the Saw Mill River Road. The Association's Board of Governors has urged the village Board of Trustees to accept the offer.

Dr. Benua will take up the seven types of hazards that would follow a thermonuclear explosion, including blast damage, fallout and firestorm. He will also discuss the effectiveness of shelters against the various hazards.

In announcing the meeting the Association's Board of Governors notes two local factors that give Dr. Benua's talk added significance:

The Board of Education has announced plans for a public hearing on a proposal to build a shelter in the new elementary school, and Civil Defense officials have reported that Hastings is within the general target area of an enemy strike.

"While the subject is not pretty, it is being widely considered," the Association's Board said. "We hope a factual presentation of the effects of a thermonuclear explosion will help Hastings people reach more informed opinions on the question."

The aim of the Committee is to provide information on radiation and nuclear technology. Under its charter, the Committee does not endorse particular programs of action or political positions.

St. Christopher's School Selects Dance Instructor

Mrs. Molly Martin has been appointed to the position of dance instructor at St. Christopher's School, Dobbs Ferry. She began her work on November 20, giving dancing lessons one afternoon a week to four small girls from Sparks Cottage. After January 1, 1962, Mrs. Martin will teach dancing to a second group, girls between the ages of 13 and 18 years old in Gould Cottage.

Mrs. Martin received her Masters of Fine Arts degree in 1955 from Women's College, University of North Carolina and remained at the college to teach dancing there for one year. Coming to New York in 1957, Mrs. Martin studied Modern Dance with Martha Graham for three years and classical ballet with Carl Shook for one year.

Dancing is felt to be important to the development of children at St. Christopher's School. It gives shy boys and girls a chance to express themselves and all children a chance to gain grace, self-assurance and praise. Often the disciplines of dance instruction carry over into the children's general behavior.

Mrs. Martin is the wife of Lawrence Martin, Senior Child Care Supervisor at St. Christopher's School. They reside in Manhattan with their year-old daughter, Erin.

Hebrew Center School to Mark Accreditation

The Religious School of the Greenburgh Hebrew Center will be formally certified as meeting the standards of the Westchester Association of Hebrew Schools at ceremonies to be conducted at the monthly meeting of the Greenburgh Hebrew Center, 515 Broadway, Dobbs Ferry, Tuesday, December 5, at 8:15 p.m.

Presentation of the certification will be made by officials of the Westchester Association of Hebrew Schools. As part of the program members of the Religious School Board of the G. H. C. will present a socio-drama based on various aspects of Jewish religious education.

Mrs. Augusta Saretzky of the Jewish Education Committee of New York will direct a question-answer period to follow.

Mr. Oscar Schmerler is principal of the Religious School.
