

Of All Faiths

by Elizabeth Wehle
 Bob McMeekin, former member of Dobbs Ferry Lutheran Church and now pastor of Grace Lutheran Church in Brill, WI, preached at the Dobbs Ferry church on July 3.
 On the same day, the Rev. Everett Ward of Hutchinson, KS, preached at North Yonkers Community Church. He was pastor of Calvary Baptist Church in Yonkers from 1948 to 1955. In 1965, Calvary merged with Warburton Avenue Baptist and three Methodist churches to form North Yonkers Community Church.
 Also on July 3, the following gifts were dedicated at First Reformed Church in Hastings: the binding of the handwritten minutes of the Board of Elders of the years 1850-1920 in memory of George D. Drewes; an American flag in memory of Andrewina Crockett Gillespie; ten Anchor Bible commentaries in memory of Edna Louise Haas; and instructional materials on "Active Parenting in the Faith Community" in memory of Evan Olsson Rudd.

 A new green frontal for the altar at St. Matthew's R.C. Church in Hastings was given by John and Patricia Condon.
 The Israeli artist Naftali Bezem, who is the brother of Nathan Weltz, a congregant of Greenburgh Hebrew Center, visited GHC in May with renderings of his design of stained glass windows to be installed on the two sides of the ark.

 Robert Kinally, organist/choir director at St. Augustine's Cathedral in Bridgeport, CT, will be assuming a similar position at Immaculate Conception Church in Irvington in September.

Calendar Notes July 8

Asbury United Methodist Church in Crestwood/Yonkers has decided to join the Consortium on Homelessness. Tonight they will make their first midnight run.

July 13

A pot luck supper at St. Matthew's Lutheran Church in Hastings will be followed by a discussion on the Gospel of John led by Jessica Merchant. This is part of a summer series of Wednesday programs to be led by members of the congregation. Tom Skultety opened the series on July 6 with a talk on the Book of Job.

Sales, Socials, and...

July 10

A Sunday brunch will be held from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. at the First Unitarian Society of Westchester in Hastings.

Festival

The music, dance and poetry of the African nations, together with educational exhibits and food, will be featured at the African-American Heritage Celebration, on Sunday, July 17, from 2 p.m. to 7 p.m., at Kensico Dam Plaza in Valhalla.

This free festival is sponsored by the Westchester County Department of Parks, Recreation and Conservation in cooperation with the African-American Cultural Foundation.

The Kensico Dam Plaza is located at the northern end of the Bronx River Parkway in Valhalla. The plaza is accessible to the disabled with assistance. In case of rain, the event will be held indoors at the Fairview Community Center located at 32 Manhattan Ave. in Greenburgh.

For further information, call the Westchester County Department of Parks, Recreation and Conservation at 285-2611 or 285-2221.

Marine Midland Bank Awards Nursing Grant

Marine Midland Bank, N.A., Trustee of the Helene Fuld Health Trust, has awarded a $10,000 grant to the Cochran School of Nursing at St. John's Riverside Hospital in Yonkers.

The grant has been designated for the purchase of computers for computer-assisted instruction at the school, which is the oldest nursing school in Westchester County.

The grant was made in recognition of the "outstanding contribution to the nursing profession being made by the Cochran School of Nursing in training undergraduate student nurses to render bedside care to patients."

The Cochran School of Nursing offers a two-year program of classroom and clinical experience leading to an Associate's Degree in Nursing. Graduates take the state licensing examination for registered nurses.

The Helene Fuld Health Trust is the nation's largest charitable trust devoted exclusively to the welfare of undergraduate student nurses.

Since the creation of the Trust in 1969, the Bank as Trustee, has made grants in excess of $46 million to nursing schools in 49 states, as well as Puerto Rico, Canada, Israel, Lebanon, the Philippines and Turkey.

For further information about the Cochran School of Nursing or fall term, call the registrar's office at 964-4296.

V.I.P. Instructors Sought

Registration is now open for a free course to train individuals to become V.I.P. (Volunteers in the Parks) instructors. Upon successful completion of the course, participants will be qualified to teach environmental awareness programs in local elementary schools and to lead field trips in three Westchester County nature preserves.

The course will begin in September and will be held on consecutive Wednesdays, from 9:30 a.m. to 11:30 a.m., at Marshlands Conservancy and the Edith G. Read Natural Park and Wildlife Sanctuary, both in Rye, and at Cranberry Lake Preserve in North White Plains. Course topics include natural history, forest, field, salt marsh and shore ecology and teaching techniques.

Instructors include County Naturalist Mary Davis, along with nature center curators Alison Beall, Ken Soltesz and Jeffrey Main.

Graduates of the V.I.P. Instructor training course are expected to volunteer one morning per week for teaching and field trips during the spring school term. Upon completion of their course and field work, graduates will be eligible to earn three college credits from S.U.N.Y. Purchase.

The V.I.P. Instructor training course is sponsored by the Westchester County Department of Parks, Recreation and Conservation.

For further information or to register, call the county naturalist's office, weekdays, at 285-2637 or 285-2659.

Institute Seeks Volunteers

The Institute of Chronobiology at The New York Hospital-Cornell Medical Center, Westchester Division in White Plains, seeks volunteers for a study of biological rhythms in major depression.

Volunteers, who will be paid, will live for 17 days in a time isolation laboratory at the institute. The time isolation unit is constructed as homelike environment, although there are no time cues such as daylight, clocks, TV and radio. The well-being of volunteers who qualify for the study will be closely monitored by a psychiatrist assigned to the unit and by the institute personnel who have frequent contact with the research subjects.

Candidates for the study should be 20-65 years old and should have been diagnosed as having recurrent, unipolar, primary, major depression. They must not be taking psychiatric medications.

For further information, call Dr. Charles Pollak at 997-5751.
