Dear Friends and Honored Guests,

It is with a great sense of pride and privilege that I have the honor of wishing all of you a hearty “Mazal Tov!” on the occasion of the celebration of your 70th annual Journal Dinner. The Great Neck Synagogue has been a shining example of what a community organization should stand for and you truly deserve that recognition.

Great Neck Synagogue has long perpetuated the standards and traditions of the Jewish faith and is a model synagogue that beautifully represents Long Island’s North Shore. I would like to recognize the contributions of Rabbis Polakoff and Lichter, along with the members of the board, who continue to be outstanding leaders with a clear vision for the community’s needs, enabling its continued growth and success.

Mazal Tov to Celia and Jack Lemonik and Davida and Marc Yehaskel. You are two most special and deserving couples and represent Great Neck Synagogue with a great sense of community pride and tradition. You are both worthy of the honor bestowed upon you by the Great Neck Synagogue.

Mazal Tov and best wishes for continued success.

Sincerely,

*Bruce A. Blakeman
County Executive*
