Zachary Amir

Zachary is a 13-year-old boy who became a Bar Mitzvah in September 2017 at Temple Shalom. He is a caring, funny and supportive older brother to his sister Natalie. Currently an 8th grader at W. A. Cunningham Junior High School in Brooklyn, NY. Zachary is dedicated, easy-going, friendly, funny, hard-working, helpful, intelligent, loving, and talented.

Zachary is a huge fan of Star Wars, Marvel movies, The Walking Dead, and of course, The Yankees and NY Giants. In school, Zachary is involved in many activities. He performed in the play Legally Blonde while in 7th grade and currently has the role of Coach Bolton in the play High School Musical. He plays the trumpet in the school band and is a member of the Color Guard. He has been on the Honor Roll his entire time in junior high school, and a member of ARISTA National Honor Society. Outside of school, Zachary played soccer, flag football, and competitive baseball (where he was the only member of his team to play 6 different positions during their championship season). He is an active member of The Boy Scouts of America currently holding the rank of 2nd Class in Troop 353. He also attends monthly the post Bar Mitzvah class at Temple Shalom.

His goals include reaching the highest rank of Eagle Scout, becoming an All-Star on his high school baseball team, and continuing his academic success. Upon graduation from high school, he plans on scheduling a multi-city baseball game tour. Later, as an adult, Zachary has an interest in working in field of sports media. He also has an interest in pursuing a profession as a sports caster, analyst or a writer.
