

Temple Shalom of Flatbush

Herbert Asherman

Herb Asherman has lived in Brooklyn for all of his 83 plus years. He has been a member of Temple Shalom of Flatbush for 45 years. Unfortunately his wife, Renee passed away almost 3 years ago from breast cancer. His daughters, Georgette is a medical statistician, and Sharon is a senior center manager at a YMHA. They both had their bat mitzvahs at Temple Shalom.

Herb graduated from Brooklyn College and also received a masters degree in guidance and counseling from Long Island University. Herb retired from the NY State Dept. of Labor after 30 years working as an employment counselor. Herb and Renee have been co-presidents of the Mr. and Mrs. club at the temple. Herb briefly served as financial secretary and for the past 20 years has been the yearzeit chairman. He attends men's club meetings, shabbat services and morning minyans regularly. Herb is a past president of Tapuach Gadol (a metropolitan area chapter of Chaverim International) an Israeli based amateur (ham) radio organization.

Herb is proud to receive this honor and wishes to congratulate the other honorees.
