Dix Hills Jewish Center

Dix Hills Jewish Center

Evan Mintz

Evan is 15 years old and is in 9th grade at Commack High School. Evan works hard and tries his best to get good grades. Evan is musically talented. He plays bass clarinet, tenor saxophone, piano, and sings. Evan is in his school's band, chorus, wind ensemble, stage band, and preforms with the marching band during football season. Evan has participated in the New York State School Music Association (NYSSMA) Solo Festival for both piano and bass clarinet. Additionally, for the last 4 years he has been part of the Suffolk County Music Educators' Association (SCMEA) all county band.

Since his Bar-Mitzvah, Evan has read from the Torah multiple times and helps in leading prayers on Friday nights, Saturday mornings, Havdalah, and weekday services. He also volunteers his time helping out at Men's Club and Synagogue related events. Evan hopes to continue to be involved with the Synagogue and continue to try and influence younger congregants to stay involved. Along with his involvement at Dix Hills Jewish Center, Evan is also an active member of BBYO where he goes to weekly meetings.

Evan also enjoys playing tennis, skiing, playing video games and working with technology. After high school Evan plans to attend college studying Computer Science focusing on hardware.

Evan would like to thank the Dix Hills Jewish Center Men's Club for this honor and is proud to be honored along with his father who is being honored as Man of The Year.