Rabbi Mark Biller

Rabbi Biller brings his creative bent to sharing Jewish wisdom as teacher, lecturer and Congregational Rabbi.

A graduate of Canadian Day Schools and Israeli Yeshiva, Rabbi Biller completed his Bachelor's Degree at the University of Toronto and continued with his Masters in the rabbinic program at The Jewish Theological Seminary of America in New York City.

Rabbi has been principal of a 600-student afternoon Hebrew School, lectures annually for The National Council of Jewish Women, has created and programmed for Jewish youth groups, and together with his wife Ellen has taught the prestigious 30 week Florence Melton School For Adult Learning curriculum for many years.

Rabbi Biller is trained through Lev Shomea as a Spiritual Director, studied BiblioDrama with its founder and creator Peter Pitzele, and creates a weekly video "THOUGHTS FROM THE KITCHEN: 30 Seconds To Launch You Iinto Shabbar", which is widely distributed online.

Rabbi Biller has served pulpits in Alabama , Ontario, New Jersey and New York.

He is married to Ellen Sokoloff Biller, and is proud father to Mira and Julian

Rabbi Biller is Spiritual Leader at Temple Gates of Prayer, Flushing, Queens, a vibrant, open, egalitarian Conservative congregation
