

Regional Man of the Year

Bob Koenigsberg

Bob and his wife Alyse have been active members of the Forest Hills Jewish Center for many years. Bob has served as past Men's Club president and currently serves as a member of the Men's Club Board. He can be found every Shabbat morning at services (in the very back of the sanctuary if you need to find him) and often receives honors, when he arrives on time.

Bob also serves on the NY Metro FJMC Board where he has been the regional secretary for the last six years. He also serves on the dinner committee and was the 2016 Dinner Committee co-chair. Bob is a regular at FJMC conventions, retreats and LDI weekends.

While not attending services or Men's Club events, Bob lives in Forest Hills and is the proud father of Allison and Julie. He commutes every day to his Manhattan office where he runs his own law practice.

Bob is deeply honored to be the recipient of the Regional Man of the Year award as this is the first award he has ever won. He wants to thank the members of the regional Board for finally recognizing him.
