Scott Goodman

Scott Goodman is a senior at Great Neck South High School. He is the captain of the varsity wrestling and lacrosse teams, both of which he has been a member of since freshman year. Additionally, Scott has been a four-year member of the jazz band, playing the baritone horn. He also enjoys playing the drums and piano.

Scott is honored to have been selected by the Congregation L'Dor V'Dor's Men's Club for this award. He has always considered the synagogue as an integral part of his life, attending Hebrew School and then participating in special programming. Over the years, he has been honored with aliyot on the High Holidays, including sounding the shofar this year. Scott has also participated in the Yom Hashoah and Kristallnacht services. He celebrated becoming Bar Mitzvah at Little Neck Jewish Center which is now, Congregation L'Dor V'Dor, a synagogue that has a long history with his family. His great grandparents were original members of the synagogue, his grandmother celebrated becoming a Bat Mitzvah there and his grandparents were married there. Scott fundraises for AIDS Walk New York and Sunrise Day Camps. He lives with his parents, Edward and Elyse, and his brother, David, in Great Neck.
