

Temple Beth El - Cedarhurst

Milton Lipitz

Milton and his wife, Carol, have been members of Temple Beth El for more than thirty years. Their three children attended the Hebrew School and Hebrew High School there, and their six grandchildren have taken part in many Temple events.

Milton earned a BBA from Bernard Baruch College, CUNY, and a Master's Degree from NYU in Educational Supervision and Administration. He was the Principal of "The Business, Computer Applications and Entrepreneurship Magnet High School" in NYC. Prior to that he was the Director of the "Work Experience and Training Unit" for the NYC Department of Education and has also held various supervisory and administrative positions there.

Although now retired, he has continued to teach Introductory Business courses at St. Johns University, the Parsons School of Design at the New School, and at LaGuardia Community College. He also worked as a "Teaching Fellows Consultant" for Brooklyn College.

As a member of the Board of Trustees at Temple Beth El, Milton is an active participant at Daily Minyans, Shabbat services, and Holiday events. President of the Men's Club for the past two years, he has presided over many religious, cultural, and social programs for the Temple, including: The World Wide Wrap, Minyan of Comfort, Sunday Rosh Chodesh events, Men's Club Shabbats, and helped organize a Veterans' Shabbat. To commemorate Yom Hashoah, the Men's Club distributes candles to all Temple members. Trips were organized to the Museum of Jewish Heritage, and Tenement Museum, as well as to various sporting events, bowling nights, and fishing trips. The Men's Club had a Talent Show, a Purim Comedy Show featuring Temple members, and a DooWop Concert. Milton has established a collaborative program with Northwell Health, and shares different programs and ideas with other temples on Long Island.

Milton is an avid sports fan. He and his wife, Carol, a Clinical Psychologist, love to travel, and have visited many places around the world. They also enjoy Broadway shows, concerts, and museums. Above all, they love spending time with their children, Stacey and Benjamin, Allison and Scott, and Bradley and Ani, and their grandchildren, Dovber, Alexis, Mendel, Zachary, Hailey, and Chaya Mushka.

Always an enthusiastic person, Milton believes that a leader is only as strong as the people he works with. He is a team player who is very proud of the accomplishments of The Men's Club at Temple Beth El, and is honored to be chosen as MAN OF THE YEAR
