Michael Prospect

Michael Prospect is being honored by the Plainview Jewish Center Mens Club. Mike has been a member of the PJC Mens Club for 20 years, having participated on the Executive Board, holding positions of Recording Secretary, Treasurer, and Financial Secretary. He is also known affectionately throughout the PJC community as the “ticket guy” for selling tickets to the annual PJC Mens Club Show fundraiser. Mike has supported Jewish causes beginning with the formative stages of his life. He grew up in the Pelham Parkway section of the Bronx and was one of the founding members of Temple Judea's youth group. Mike met his wife of 34 years, Melanie, at B'nai B'rith Perlman Camp in Starlight, Pennsylvania.

Professionally, Mike has been a systems developer, developing systems for the defense of the US Homeland, operating systems for the New York Stock Exchange, and, more recently, the media industry including stints at Cablevision, HBO and Spectrum.

Mike would like to thank the PJC Mens Club for this honor as well as his biggest fan club, his family, led by his wife, Melanie, sons Neil and Eric, daughter-in-law, Jillian, mother, Ethel, and family dog, Charlie.
