March 31, 2016

Dear Friends,

It gives me great pleasure to welcome everyone here this evening to celebrate the Schechter School of Long Island's Annual Gala themed "Celebrating Our Global Jewish Story."

The Schechter School of Long Island not only provides an outstanding education to their students but encourages them to explore their curiosity, honor timeless traditions as well as to think for themselves. Schechter Long Island families feel so fortunate for the values that the students are taught in class. The lessons of day-to-day acts of kindness and to challenge themselves to make positive contributions to improving the lives of themselves and others are irrefutable. Everyone here this evening can appreciate the impact of the unique education that each student leaves with upon graduating from this extraordinary school.

I would like to take this opportunity to congratulate this evening's honorees; Stephanie and Rami Abada, Jamie and Adam Altman, Barbara Mann and Jackie and Stuart Miller. Furthermore, I would like to congratulate Schechter Long Island's outstanding staff members and the parents of the students for carrying out the school's mission.

Enjoy tonight's festivities and please accept my best wishes for continued success in the future.

Sincerely,
