Dear Friends:

I want to offer everyone my heartfelt congratulations and sincere best wishes as The Schechter School of Long Island celebrates its 50th Anniversary and holds the Annual Gala at the Old Westbury Hebrew Congregation. This is quite a milestone, and one of which everyone associated with the school should be justifiably proud!

I join with you in celebrating your rich history, and would like to offer additional congratulations to this year's honorees: your beloved Head of School, Dr. Cindy Dolgin, and longtime supporters Diane and Howard Wohl, as well as an illustrious group of past presidents. The world may have changed greatly over the past 50 years, but your original mission – a school that offers the finest academics in both Judaic and General Studies, thereby empowering students to be critical thinkers, ethical leaders and globally engaged citizens – has remained a constant.

Keep up your great work, and once again, my congratulations and best wishes!

Sincerely,

KEMP HANNON
