Dear Gail,

I am fortunate and lucky to have been part of the TBA staff/family since your very first day. It has been a privilege working for you, and with you, over the last twenty-five years. I have felt consistently supported by you - professionally and personally. You're an incredible leader and are always willing to listen and provide helpful guidance. You are the ultimate brainstormer who is filled with knowledge. Your calming nature always has a positive effect on me.

The day has finally arrived. You are retiring. Although bittersweet, my heart is filled with joy for you. I wish you and Barry all the best in the years to come.

My friend, I will miss you more than you can imagine.

My love always,
