

Dear Julie,

Congratulations on all your achievements during your time as President of TBA!

I would like to express my deepest thanks for your support, both professionally and personally, over the years.

In addition, I commend and respect your dedication to the success of TBA. I know you will continue to contribute to the TBA community, as well as the community at large, because that is who you are.

With Much Admiration,

Tracey Bent