Dear Friends:

It is my pleasure to send greetings to everyone gathered for the Westchester Jewish Center's Spring Gala.

Since its inception, the Westchester Jewish Center (WJC) has been a welcoming sanctuary for local families. From worship services and Torah study, to youth groups and educational programs, WJC grants its members ample opportunities to connect with their faith and culture. When neighbors are empowered to come together and embrace their shared traditions, our communities become stronger.

Today, you gather to celebrate the impact the Westchester Jewish Center has on those it serves. I join you in congratulating tonight's honorees, Tracey and Evan Levy, and Marcie and Mark Berger. On behalf of all New Yorkers, I am grateful for your dedication to fostering a sense of belonging among Jewish residents. Best wishes for an enjoyable celebration.

Sincerely,

Kathy Hochul
Governor
