Letter of Recognition
Honoring Tracey and Evan Levy
of the Westchester Jewish Center

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Levy,

On behalf of the Westchester County Board of Legislators, it is with great admiration and heartfelt appreciation that we extend this formal letter of recognition in honor of your exceptional dedication, leadership, and service to the Westchester Jewish Center and the broader Westchester community.

Through your unwavering commitment, you have both embodied the highest values of community, compassion, and civic responsibility. Your tireless efforts in supporting spiritual life, education, and community engagement have enriched countless lives and helped strengthen the bonds that unite us all. Whether through philanthropic endeavors, volunteer leadership, or the everyday acts of kindness and inclusion that define your character, you have made a profound and lasting impact.

The Westchester Jewish Center has long been a pillar of tradition, learning, and service in our county, and it is through the efforts of individuals like you that its mission continues to flourish. Your contributions serve as an inspiration not only to your fellow congregants but to all residents of Westchester County.

Please accept this recognition as a symbol of our gratitude and respect for all that you have done—and continue to do—to uplift your community. We are honored to count you among the distinguished citizens of Westchester.

With sincere appreciation,

Judah Holstein
